United Press Service

BOSTON, June 4.—A categorical denial of the testimony of William Breen, the state's star witness, was the feature of the testimony today of James Atteaux, who, with President Wood of the American Woolen company, is charged with planting dynamite at Lawrence, Mass., last year, to incite prejudice against the textile strikers.
Atteaux called Breen a "colossal liar." He said that the informant's testimony was given as a revenge because Atteaux had refused to be blackmailed.
According to Atteaux, a colossal system of blackmail was drawn up. Breen, he said, was the central figure.

Mother Jones is Now in Capital

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—

When the senatorial investigation of the action of Governors Glascock and Hatfield in connection with the striking coal miners of their state begins, Mother Jones believes, revelations which will startle the country will be made. She is now in Washington urging Senator John W. Kern, the democratic leader of the upper chamber, to push the inquiry to the limit.
Mother Jones herself spent three months as a prisoner under military rule. She said she was treated well, but she denied the right of the governor and the military authorities of the state to make her a prisoner, although she was willing, she said, to have the matter tested in the civil courts. She will be one of the main witnesses for the miners before the senatorial committee.
Mother Jones is now 81. She has been agitating for fifty years.
"Where is your home?" she was asked.
"Wherever labor is in trouble," she answered.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 4.—The federal garrison at Matamoros early this morning surrendered to General Lucio Blanco, the Maderista commander.
The fight preceding the surrender lasted twenty-four hours, and was marked by heavy losses by both sides. The suffering of the injured was intense, owing to the utter lack of medical aid.
In order to alleviate the sufferings of the wounded, General Blanco, immediately after the surrender, invited American physicians to cross the border and attend to the wounded.
Sightseers who went to Matamoros immediately after the battle estimate the dead at 300.
General Blanco at noon ordered the execution of thirty federal soldiers who were violating the display of a flag of truce.

On the other hand, one Mr. Nolan is equally firm about his views in the matter. As his protege is the present possessor of the championship,

Crater Lake Will Soon be Open For Summer Tourists

Superintendent Arant, Home From a Trip of Inspection Says Snow is Soft and is Melting Very Fast. He Believes Park Will be Accessible by June 20

"The snow at Crater Lake is about the same depth that it was last year at this time, but it is softer, and is melting much more rapidly," said Superintendent W. Frank Arant of Crater Lake National Park, who has just returned from a trip of inspection to the park. He has been away several days.
"I believe that with the way the snow is melting now, it will be possible for vehicles to get within four miles of the rim by June 20. At this point there is a deep canyon, heavily timbered, and the snow melts more slowly than on either side. From there, it will be easy to reach the rim on foot."
"The snow line has receded until now it is a mile inside the park line," continued Arant. At the headquarters, there was between seven and eight feet of snow. This is rapidly melting.
Arant stated that he found everything in first class condition at Camp Arant, the park headquarters. Most of the bridges spanning the numerous creeks in the park are taken up in the fall, in order to save them from being carried away when the melting snows swell the streams.
"When the park was abandoned for the winter last fall," continued Arant, "one of the buildings was left open for any winter sojourners. This was filled with wood and other things for their comfort, and notices directing travelers to it were posted in different parts of the park.
"This was used by Clapp and Bailey and their party the 1st of February. Later in the month Berry Brothers and Lisk from Fort Klamath also journeyed over the snow to the lake and used the cabin. I found everything left in first class condition."

Home Building Co. Growing Prosperous

Change of Management is Greatly Beneficial to Local Concern. Its Annual Report Encouraging

Had it not been for the reckless manner in which the affairs of the concern were handled during the first six months of its existence by a promoter, who also acted as secretary, the Home Building and Realty company would be able at this time to declare a substantial dividend.
This was brought out at last night's annual meeting of the stockholders, when the annual report was read by Arthur Wilson, the secretary.
The statement read is highly creditable, under the circumstances. It showed that the stock was not worth over 50 cents on the dollar after six months' manipulation by the promoters, while at the present time it is paying 8 per cent on 87 1/2 stock value and there is every indication that the stock will sell at par within the year.
Members of the company were greatly encouraged at the showing that has been made. It was announced that the concern is in a position to lend money on city real estate.
The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Robert A. Johnson, Fred Melbass, R. E. Smith, Marion Hanks, Robert E. Wattsonburg, D. B. Campbell, C. W. Murphy, R. H. Dunbar and Hunter Savidge.
The officers chosen by the directors are: President, D. B. Campbell; first vice president, Robert A. Johnson; second vice president, R. E. Smith; secretary treasurer, Arthur R. Wilson.

Salinas Horseman to be a Rodeo Official

Man Prominent in Management of California's Best Rodeo Will Act as One of the Judges Here

F. J. Griffin, a well known Salinas, Calif., business man, and one of the men prominent in the success of the annual Rodeo held here, is to be one of the judges of the Elks' Rodeo next month. Maris Miller, of the Bank of Lakeview, was named as a judge some time ago, and the third will be named in a few days.
Griffin has always been active in the work of making the Salinas Rodeo a success, and he is an expert at judging events of this kind. He was one of the judges at the Los Angeles Rodeo.
It is expected that when Griffin returns to Salinas from here, he will take with him "Square Deal," "Cherry" and "White Falcon," the three Elks' bronchos who have developed into unconquerable buckers.
Griffin was much impressed with the work of these horses at Los Angeles, and he is anxious to secure them for head-liners at the Salinas show.
